Regional Assembly
May 18-19, 2018

Rev. Sandhya Jha
Dr. Timothy James

We are now in the second year of our “Future Story” as a regional church. In preparation we prayed, talked, and listened to create a three year set of hopes/goals. At the Regional Assembly in 2016 in Springfield we launched into this three year venture together.

In our first year, we trained nine persons to be anti-racism trainers and are in the process now of holding three events to engage all of our pastors and some lay leaders in anti-racism one day training events. One of the three events has happened and included over 60 people. We also moved into a season of learning to use video conferencing for more of our meetings and upgraded some of our communication technology. We hosted a series of three Mission First gatherings to be a part of a denomination wide visioning process. We have begun the process of hiring several small part time positions for targeted regional church work in camp ministry and communication and soon will hire for supporting new church leadership. We are seeking to energize our five geographic districts and will launch a regional online newsletter, online giving and online registration for events this fall.

In year two of the story, we will build our Anti-Racism team to move us forward in this work, engage in better awareness of stewardship of accumulated wealth, expand our men’s ministries, and welcome several new congregations to full membership in the regional church.

One of our hopes for year one that is still unfolding is the training and commissioning of a group of regional elders to offer pastoral care particularly to our retired and active clergy families during times of need. We hope to have more to report on this soon.

In hope, Cathy

General Assembly Reflections

The 2017 General Assembly of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in the United States and Canada ended on a high note on July 12.

The closing worship service featured the installation of a new General Minister and President, Terri Hord Owens. She comes to the position as the second consecutive female local pastor and the first African American person elected as General Minister and President. She most recently served as Pastor of First Christian Church in Downers Grove, IL and as Dean of Students at University of Chicago Divinity School. You can see the installation at https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=S_DD43ge0BY&feature=youtu.be with Rev. Hord Owens sermon starting at 1:16 in the video. Rev. Terri Hord Owens succeeds Dr. Sharon Watkins who served for the maximum twelve years as General Minister and President. The Assembly honored Dr. Watkins on the first night of the event.

The General Assembly also celebrated Disciples’ progress toward the 2020 Vision goal of 1,000 new churches in the first twenty years of the twenty-first century. The number of new and affiliating churches now stands at 985!

Caribbean Initiative Launched — Embrace the Spirit

Every two years, Global Ministries names a new initiative to focus on one of the areas of the world where we engage in mission partnerships. For the next two years our attention will be focused on the Caribbean nations of Cuba, Haiti, the Dominican Republic, Jamaica, Puerto Rico, Venezuela, and Colombia. Recent pilgrimage visits have taken church leaders from North America to these countries and people from Caribbean churches to North America to prepare for this season of celebration. At the website below you can find music, stories, Bible studies, and more. As the months go forward, more resources will continue to build the site. You can use these resources for classes, sermons, worship, and events. Remember there are people in our regional church that can serve as speakers about their experiences in these countries. Stay tuned.

Seminary Considers Move to Oregon

Claremont School of Theology has announced its strong interest in relocating the seminary to Salem, Oregon. While not finalized at this time, the seminary has had extensive conversations about becoming a graduate school affiliated with Willamette University. For sixty years, CST has worked in close partnership with Disciples Seminary Foundation and this partnership would continue should a move transpire. The office of Disciples Seminary Foundation would remain at its present location in Claremont, California, with the likelihood of a staff person deployed to Salem.

Disciples Seminary Foundation supports ministry education specifically for Disciples in the western United States. DSF is active in California in San Diego, Claremont, Berkeley and San Anselmo, and in Seattle as well. These involvements would continue in the event of a move by Claremont seminary. Currently Disciples in Idaho and Oregon are studying for the Master of Divinity degree with CST by means of a new online education program.

Women’s Retreats...Plan to Come and bring Friends

The Snake River District women will host its annual retreat in Cascade, Idaho on August 18-20 at the Ashley Inn. This year’s speaker is Rev. Marci Rau, Chaplain and Interplay Leader.

The western districts of our regional church host a women’s retreat to be held at Murray Hills Christian Church on October 13-14. This year’s speaker is Rev. Dr. Katy Valentine, member of the staff in Northern California/Nevada region and pastor in a congregation in that region.

Both of these retreats offer times of inspiration, fun, creativity, community building, outreach and learning. Watch the web page for more information.

Both groups are reading the book, “Before we were Free” for our annual women’s book club read. Copies of the book can be found at libraries, used on line, or purchased from the regional church office for $5.00.
